Risk Statement: You should recognise that orienteering is a recreational activity that may involve significant risk of physical harm and has certain inherent and obvious risks due to its conduct in both urban and natural environments. Included in these risks are injury due to: rough terrain and obstacles; the effects of heat, cold or other adverse weather conditions; plant and animal life; vehicular traffic; and remoteness to medical services or evacuation difficulties should you become disabled. You should recognise that the enjoyment of orienteering is derived in part from the inherent and obvious risks associated with the activity. You should also be aware that there is no personal accident insurance on your participation in the sport and you participate at your own risk.

Disclaimer: Please also note that to the extent permitted by law, the Orienteering Association of NSW and its member clubs, board members, staff, event organisers, controllers, planners, volunteers, officials, fellow members and all parties associated with organising the event (together the "Associated Entities") excludes all:

- liability (including for negligence) to you or anyone else in respect of any death, bodily injury, loss or damage (including property damage) howsoever caused which may be sustained or incurred by you as a result of your participation in or being present at an orienteering event supplied or organised by the Orienteering Association of NSW and/or the Associated Entities; and
- warranties or representations, whether express or implied, that the services of the Orienteering Association of NSW and the Associated Entities will be rendered with reasonable care and skill or that any materials provided by the Orienteering Association of NSW will be fit for the purpose for which they are supplied.

For your information, the Association's privacy policy is as follows: The Association is collecting information on this form for the purpose of, amongst other things, its membership records and to enable newsletters to be sent to you. From time to time, the Association or an affiliated club or their representatives and volunteers, may take photographs or video of individuals at orienteering events for the purposes of publishing such information on the Association's or the club's website, or for use in promotional material. The Association or an affiliated club may also publish competition results on their websites and in various media publications including newspapers. The Association will maintain all information in a secure manner and will not pass it on for purposes outside the above. By entering orienteering events, you consent to your personal information being collected and used in the ways outlined above. Should you wish to gain access to any of your personal information held by the Association you should contact the Association's Administration Officer.
